The relations-Selmec tradition

- 1735-Selmecbánya
- Several student traditions
- „balekhét”
- „balek-teaching”
- Lot of programs where teachers appear

The relations-benefits of small groups and reserching

- 500 students
- 10-40 person groups
- TDK-system (Tudományos Diákköri Konferencia-scientific student conference)
- Several research projects

Communication-via personal contacts

- Formal communication in EMK
- Somebody use personal telefon numbers
- Some other faculties communicate via messenger

Communication-via student governments

- HÖK (Halgatói Önkormányzat-Student Government)
- Liaise on the faculty

Negativs and some idea

- Soft constant disagreement
- E-mails, student forums, questionnaires: bad effectiveness
- Deep edge between student and teacher thinking
- Ifjúsági Kör (Youth Circle): 1879-1948
- Students wants a stronger organisation

A large, light-colored building with a central entrance and many windows, surrounded by greenery and trees. The building has a prominent central entrance with a large arched doorway. Above the entrance, there is a decorative pediment with a crest. The building is flanked by tall, dark green trees. The sky is overcast.
